Alectra Inc. announces executive changes

Mississauga, ON – Brian Bentz, President and CEO of Alectra Inc. announced today that Dennis Nolan, Executive Vice President, Legal, Government Relations and Corporate Secretary, will be retiring from the company, effective June 30.

“Following 21 years of dedicated service, which includes his integral role in the creation of both Alectra and PowerStream, Dennis has been a key member of the Alectra team and has provided the company with exceptional support and advice over the years. We wish him all the best as he begins this exciting next chapter,” said Mr. Bentz.

With Mr. Nolan’s retirement, Vinay Mehta has been appointed to the position of Executive Vice President, Legal, Strategy and Corporate Secretary, reporting to Mr. Bentz. This appointment is effective June 5, 2023.

“Vinay is a valuable member of Alectra’s Executive Committee and is a highly effective leader, guiding the company’s legal services and providing sound counsel and advice to the organization,” said Mr. Bentz. “Importantly, this appointment also recognizes the strong ties the Corporate Secretary has with the Strategy, ERM and Sustainability functions at Alectra, and ensures alignment with our key stakeholders as we execute our strategy.”
